

Physical and motor

The child develops his motor skills while playing. She becomes aware of her body in motion. She develops her senses by exploring the world around her. She becomes aware of the importance of a healthy lifestyle and safety.