

Physical and motor

The child develops his motor skills while playing. He becomes aware of his body in motion. He develops his senses by exploring the world around him. He becomes aware of the importance of a healthy lifestyle and safety.