

Language

The child develops her skills to communicate, to express her ideas, her needs and to understand the ideas of others. She expands her vocabulary by interacting with her peers and the adults around her. She awakens to reading and writing.