

Language

The child develops his skills to communicate, to express his ideas, his needs and to understand the ideas of others. He expands his vocabulary by interacting with his peers and the adults around them. He awakens to reading and writing.